For all hotels:

Cancellation Policy

The individually made hotel room reservations can be cancelled free of charge, in writing (fax or email), till 72 hours prior to arrival. Afterwards the “hotel” will charge the incurred loss which corresponds to difference of the number of nights between start of the stay and possible re-booking of the room by a third party, the complete compensation not exceeding the entire stay booked.

The policy will be stated on the hotel’s booking form and on the hotel confirmation.

Guarantee

All room reservations must be guaranteed, with a valid credit card (card type, card number, card expiry date, card holder as well as the CVVcode at back of the card). Details will be requested via the hotel room reservation form.

Payment

The full payment will be made by the individual attendee when checking-out at the “hotel”. The hotel reception staff will ask upon arrival a credit card imprint or cash deposit to guarantee the payment of all expensive. In some rare cases a full payment of the accommodation cost upon arrival can be asked.

Arrival & departure

The “hotel” official arrival time (check-in) is 3PM (local time), the day of arrival. In the event of an early arrival (before the official check-in time), is recommended to pre-book, the latest 72 hours prior to arrival, the night before the actual stay to guarantee an available room upon arrival.

Possible unexpected early arrivals will be provided a room upon availability, although an immediate availability cannot be guaranteed.

The hotel rooms have to be vacant again by noon (local time), the day of departure. In the event of a late liberated room the hotel can apply charges up to one additional night.
